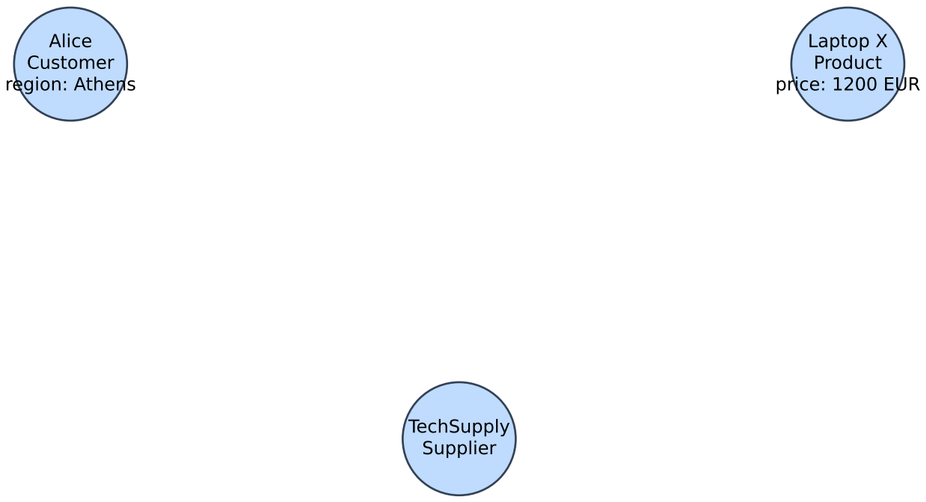
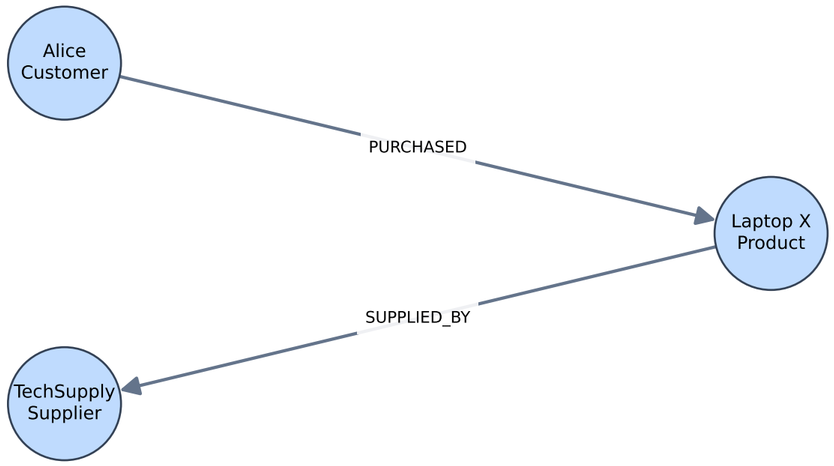
Knowledge Graph Foundations

1. Entities



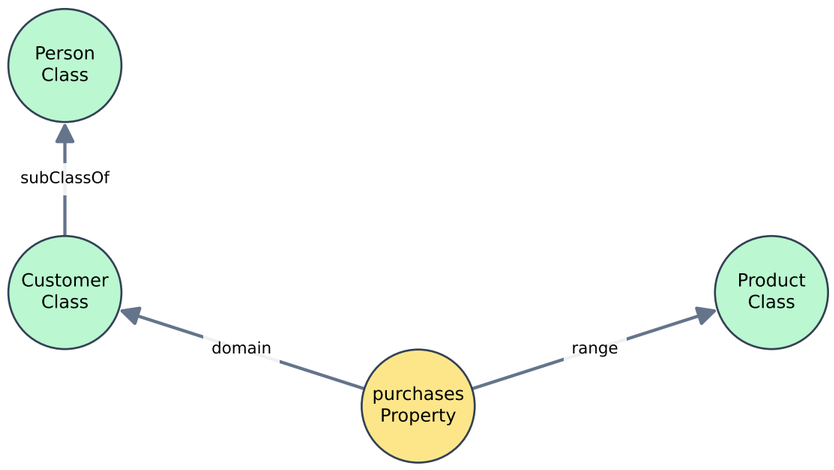
Each node represents an identifiable object.

2. Relationships



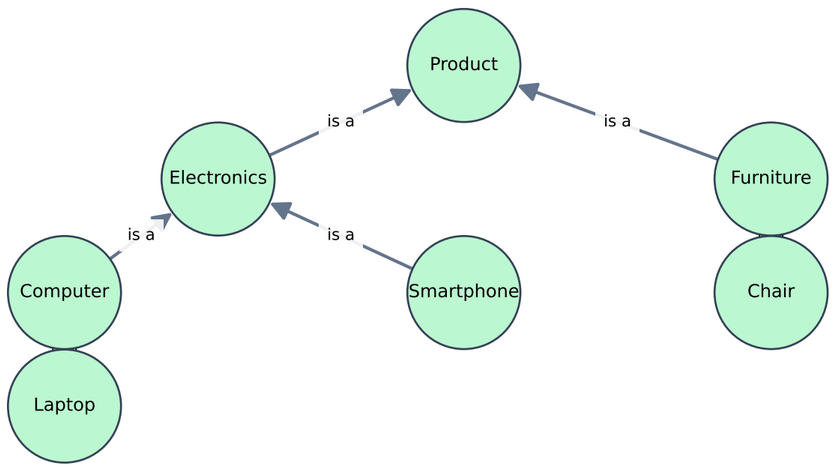
Arrows connect entities and describe their relationship.

3. Ontology



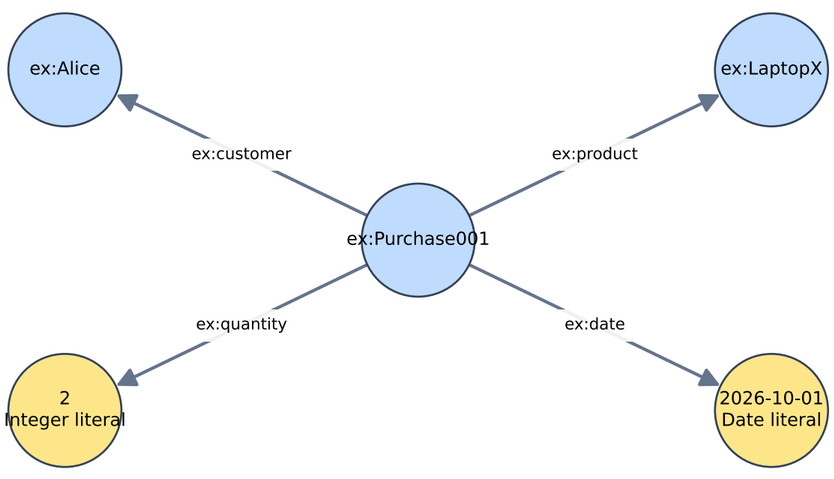
Defines classes and the meaning of a property.

4. Taxonomy



Specific categories point toward broader categories.

5. RDF: Purchase as an Entity



Each arrow represents a subject-predicate-object triple.

6. Property Graph

Nodes and relationships can carry properties.